SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2017
Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Surrounded by

Discrimination Oppression
War

Christians are challenged to be united in mind and judgment bring mankind to

unity & peace

The light we bring to the world should lead in time to an end of all the world's darkness:

the alienation & oppression of peoples
the attacks on human life & dignity & disrespect for God's creation

"A people living in darkness has seen a great light."

Children younger than 4-years-old may go to the nursery. Children in 2nd grade and above are encouraged to attend Mass with their parents. Should there not be a consistent attendance for this offering it will be discontinued in the Spring Quarter. Two Northwestern students are willing to facilitate Children's Liturgy, but we also need parent volunteers to assist each week. Please contact Director of Music and Liturgy, Angela Stramaglia at a-stramaglia@u.northwestern.edu if you would like to volunteer or if you have any questions.

IAE's annual fund raising dinner celebrates leaders who exemplify their organization's ministries and mission referred to as "Vision Keepers."

Sheil Catholic Center's Vision Keeper Marina Porter

On February 19, 2017, Interfaith Action of Evanston will host its annual fundraising dinner to honor this year's Vision Keepers. Sheil's 2017 Vision Keeper is Marina Porter.

Marina's service to Sheil & the wider community include:

- President of the Catholic Students Association
- Student leader of Sheil service trips to Nicaragua
- Student co-chair of Sheil's Mardi Gras fundraiser,
- Member of Best Buddies service club, which pairs Northwestern students with individuals with disabilities at Misericordia home in Chicago
- Member of the NU Project Pumpkin planning committee, that hosts an annual Halloween party for low-income children in Evanston.

She truly exemplifies a Vision Keeper who progresses the tenants of social Catholic teaching. Her leadership and mentoring of fellow students inspires them to do the same.

Marina is a senior majoring in psychology with a minor in religious studies. We are blessed to have her in our community. She is a person of integrity and a model of Christ's Love in the world.

If you would like to celebrate Marina and the other Vision Keepers from Evanston's faith communities, their annual benefit is Sunday, February 19 in the Grand Ballroom of the Hilton Orrington Hotel at 5:30 p.m.

Tickets for the event are $75 per person. All reservations must be accompanied by payment, and checks should be made out to Interfaith Action and mailed to Interfaith Action of Evanston, PO Box 1414, Evanston, IL 60201.
